SENIORITIS

"It is here!" they exclaimed." It had finally come.
After Twelve years of waiting, Senior Year had begun:
Graduation and parties, and things of that kind,
Senior Events were on everyone's mind.
It was Thursday and time for "Conc's" famous speech;
He said it quite simply, "Senior Year is not life at the beach!"
But we did not believe him, we, the Class of '89;
We would have fun, and everything would be fine.
Weeks moved by quickly, and time went by fast.
Before we knew it, first term had already passed.
We celebrated that night at the Semi-Formal,
But upcoming applications and term papers made people
abnormal.
We didn't lose Pep Rally, like we had been told —
We won quite easily with a loud chorus of Maroon and Gold.
Next it was December and time for the Senior Class Play,
And "Bye Bye Birdie" was most entertaining, I must say.
Seniors sang and danced and learned a few lines,
To give great performances and have a fine time.
January was cold and snow added to frustrations;
People just could not wait for sunny April vacations.
Finally, a time to relax; second semester was here.
But that plan was axed by the arrival of mid-years.
We made it through winter and went on toward spring.
We just couldn't wait for that final school bell to ring.
Well, June rolled around and we thought we were done.
Once we took finals, we could have fun in the sun.
But there was once last thing that we had to complete,
We had to make the long march to Pomp & Circumstance's beat
Saturday, June 3rd, graduation day was here.
High school was over, and it was truly our finest year!

Football

The 1988 football season was an overwhelming success once again this year. The team played outstanding defense throughout the season. Quarterback Tim Stevenson led the offense along with the help of Barry Bourassa, who broke every major school record for a single season and all-time. Tri-captains Tom Romans and Steve Ruggerio provided leadership and spirit as the team defeated one team after another. Credit for the team's success should be given to Mr. Kelly who was named Coach of the Year. Determination and talent once again combined for a winning season.

Boys' Volleyball

The volleyball team headed by last year's seniors Bill McEcheran and Derek Petrus had a very successful season. This year's team should be very strong with returning seniors Joe Mahan, Derek Lawson, and Kevin DiBona. Junior Dave McEcheran should add a lot of strength and good play to the team.

Girls' Volleyball

The 1988 Girls' Volleyball Team was led by co-captains Mary Ledwell and Sharon Grazioso. Thanks to the outstanding coaching job by Miss Rusekas, each member of the team achieved a personal victory in every game. Determination, talent and effort was evident in all the players. The team has high hopes for the 1989 season.

School Committee Representatives

Rob and Chris attend each School Committee meeting to voice student opinion and represent the students. They have time each meeting to show support or opposition to school policy and give committee members a student's point of view.

Rob LaRocco, Chris McLeod

Student Advisory Committee

Each month Chris and Jay represent Weymouth North High School at the Student Advisory Committee meetings held in Boston at the state house. Students from schools in the Boston area meet to discuss problems each school faces, and they try to find ways to solve them. The committee has met with the governor and other leading officials to find ways to work together to improve secondary education in Massachusetts.

Honor Society

Honor Society is composed of students lucky enough to manage four years of excellent grades. However these students do more than study. This year the Honor Society sold candy canes at Christmas to raise money for charity and also held a phonathon to support The American Heart Association.

Academic Decathlon

This year's Academic Decathlon team finished seventh out of thirty five high school in the Eastern Massachusetts competition on November 19, 1988, and qualified for the state finals. Captain Michael Walsh won a gold medal for the highest score in social studies at the competition and a bronze medal for third place in mathematics. Chris Merten also won a bronze medal for social studies.

Yearbook Staff

A high school yearbook is the official record of the year's activities. Producing this book takes organization, creativity, time, and patience. Although the 1989 North Star's staff was small, they were loyal. Under the leadership of Co-Editors Dorothy Chase and Jessica Lane and assistant editor Amy Conway, all involved had a frustrating, enlightening, and sometimes hysterical year. The staff showed both spunk and ingenuity in meeting deadlines, planning layouts, and writing copy. Their goal was to create a book filled with memories for all the graduates to share.

Co-Editor Dorothy Chase and the two yearbook advisors, Mrs. Litten and Mr. Cuoco work diligently at the computer.

Junior Prom 1988

Last year's Junior Prom marked the kick-off of the long-awaited senior year for the Class of 1989. Held May 27, 1988, at the Elks Hall, the night easily topped all others. Excitement was in the air as the students danced the night away. If the prom is any indication of how senior year will turn out, the senior class is in for a fantastic year.

Halloween 1988

October 31, 1988, was the night all the spooks came out, and this year Weymouth North had more than its share. From the Flintstones to Freddy Krueger, students had a great time celebrating Halloween. Highlights of the day included the hall decorating contests, bobbing for apples during lunch, and the costume competition. The seniors dominated the costume by winning three out of five events and also won the Annual Hall Decorating Contest.

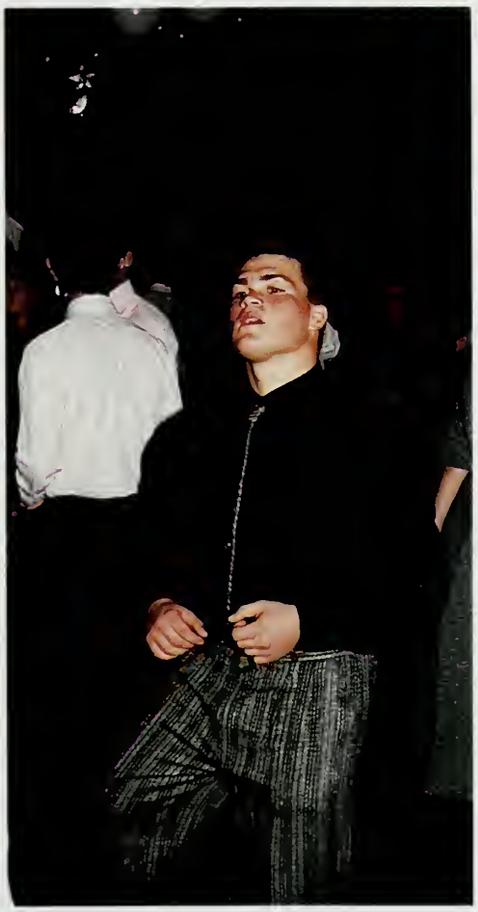
Seniors for Seniors Dinner 1988

On Sunday, November 20, 1988, the senior class held a Thanksgiving dinner for the senior citizens of Weymouth. A skit from the Senior Class Play Bye Bye Birdie was performed by Robert Corddry and Michelle LaPlante and the stage band performed music from the Big Band Era. After the dinner event chairpersons, Christine Joyce, Patty Carey, Christine O'Toole and class officer Julie Morgan awarded door prizes and led the afternoon's dancing. Because more than sixty seniors volunteered their time and enthusiasm, the Third Annual Seniors for Seniors Dinner was an overwhelming success.

Senior Semi-Formal Dance 1988

The Senior Semi-Formal was a great success this year despite the rainy weather. Held on November 10, at the Elks Hall, the class came together to celebrate the end of the first term and the beginning of a full year of activities.

The class received a special surprise when a message from former classmate Barbara Johnson was read. In general, the night was a fantastic time for all who attended.



Pep Rally 1988

This year's Pep Rally was bigger than ever as the whole school turned out to support the football team. Spirits were higher than usual as the cheerleaders led the festivities. Coach Kelly was extremely pleased with the school's enthusiasm throughout the season. Seniors led the competition among classes for the most school spirit with a chorus of "Fight Maroon and Gold," the school song. Overall, the day was a great success and a great start to the Thanksgiving holiday.

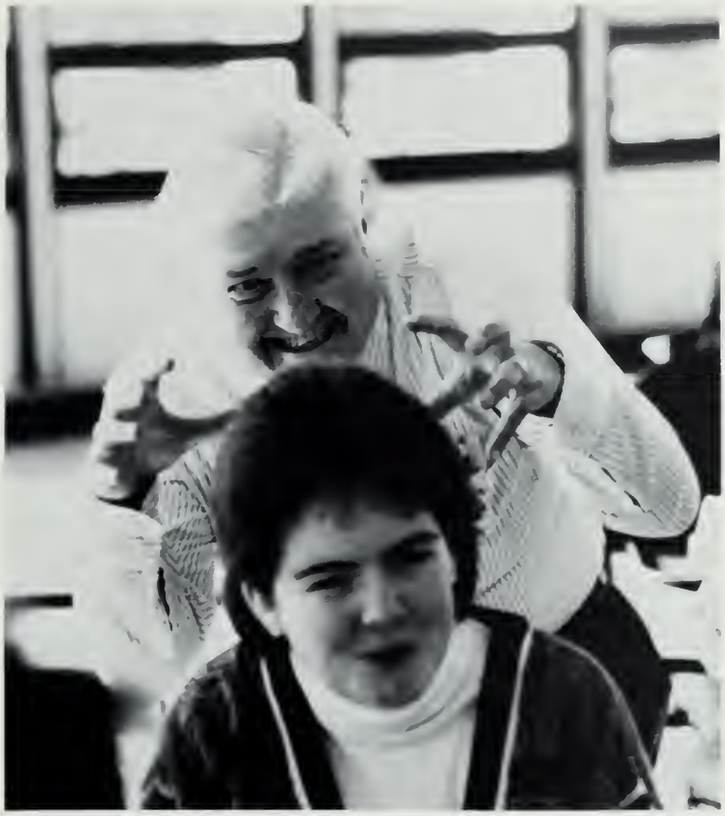
Juniors Live It Up At The Senior Prom

On May 6, 1988 eight juniors Kevin Beatrice, Amy Conway, John Gallagher, Katie Illes, Eric Koe, Scott Moser, Maureen MacDonald, and Kathleen Reilly ushered the Senior Prom at Lombardo's in Randolph. As the seniors celebrated the end of their high school days, the ushers looked forward to a FABULOUS senior year.



Principals in Action

Homecoming 1988

On October 22, 1988, the students gathered in the school cafeteria to celebrate another successful football season. Despite a tough loss to Merrimack, New Hampshire, spirits were high as the students played musical knees, did the Hokey Pokey, and danced all night. The highlight of the evening came when Barry Bourassa and Kristen Connelly were crowned King and Queen for 1988.

Juniors for Juniors 1988

Juniors for Juniors was an Easter Egg Hunt for the children of Weymouth held at Weymouth North on April 1, 1988. Under the supervision of Mr. Fuller, the Junior class donated time and effort to a day of egg hunting and a special appearance by the Easter Bunny.

The Bull

Editor Mike Faletra heads the staff of the school newspaper, which is published once each term. Faculty advisor Mrs. Whitlow insures that each issue features timely and interesting articles written by students. Patrick Bennedetti, Graphics Editor, and Bill Turner, Production Editor, are also vital to the paper's publication.

Reflections

Reflections is the student literary magazine published each spring at North. Aspiring writers and artists submit work, hoping to see their work in print. The staff, with the help of Mrs. Worcester, has the difficult task of choosing material, editing, and designing layouts. Editors Amy Conway, Steve Faerm, Katie Illes, Kelli Quinn, and the rest of the staff do an excellent job and produce a great magazine.

Amnesty International

The Amnesty International Club, despite poor attendance, had a very successful year. President Jennifer Parker and vice president Karin Paige made plans to attend a concert in Boston to support the Amnesty cause. The group also wrote letters to protest the violation of human rights in foreign countries and capital punishment for political dissenters.

SADD

Drunk driving is a great problem in our society, and few realize the pain it causes. Students Against Drunk Driving is an organization which tries to promote safety and responsibility among students concerning their drinking habits. The group gave a presentation at Pep Rally and posts signs throughout the school warning students about the hazzards of driving under the influence of alcohol. SADD is a worthwhile cause and credit to our school.

Assembly Committee

Trying to sponsor entertaining and informative assemblies is not an easy task, but members of the Assembly Committee do a splendid job. Each year the committee brings speakers and musicians to school to expose students to new things. Drugs, peer pressure, and self-esteem are only a few of the issues raised in this year's assemblies. The committee does an excellent job, and they are greatly appreciated by the student body.

Student Council

Throughout the year the Student Council engages in many activities. This year, they sponsored a canned food drive for families in Weymouth and an extremely successful money drive for classmate Paul Tubberville. Future activities include an exchange program with South High, which was very successful last year.

Jay Woodward, Mr. DeCoste

Student Government Day

This year Jay Woodward, Class of 1989, was chosen to be Weymouth North High School's Student Government Day delegate, and Scott Marsh, Class of 1990, was chosen as the alternate. Student Government Day is an informative program about state government which ends up with students participating in the roles of elected or appointed officials to "run the government for a day." This year Student Government Day was held on Friday, April 7, 1989. Both Jay and Scott attended workshops to prepare for this important and exciting event.

Hole In The Wall

Students from the Business Department apply their classroom knowledge to the school store, The Hole In The Wall. Seniors open and close the store, order stock, and make bank deposits. Any student or teacher can buy a snack or school supplies during studies or a free period. All profits from the store go the Senior Class. With the help of Mrs. Doucette, the students run a very successful business.

Drama Club

This year the drama club staged two major productions, "Bye Bye Birdie" and "The Loveliest Afternoon of the Year." The club is loaded with talent and enthusiasm. After completing the Senior class play in December, the group threw all their energy into the production for the State Drama Festival. The actors compete with schools throughout the South Shore in hopes of winning the state competition. Regardless of the outcome, this year's club continues the long tradition of top-notch student productions.

Concert Choir

The Concert Choir performs several times each year to entertain Weymouth North High School and the rest of the community. Along with the band, the choir stages concerts each fall and spring. Under the direction of Mrs. Hodges, this group of singers is very enjoyable to hear.

Joyce Hoisington, Mrs. Doucette, Theresa DiDominici

Scholars & Cents

Banking was made easier for students this year with the opening of Scholars & Cents. During lunch periods the bank is open to students who wish to make deposits, withdraw money, or cash checks. Tellers are students from the Business Department who want to earn practical experience and see how a bank really works.

Key Club

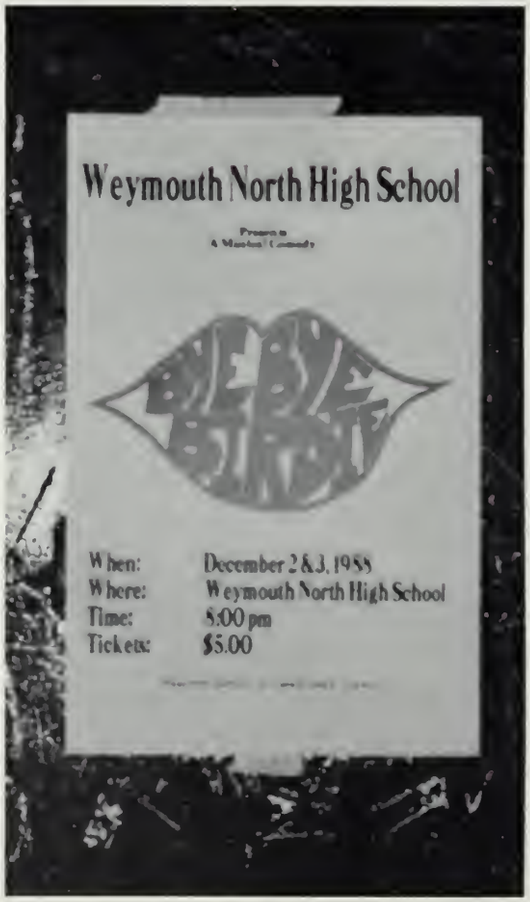
The Weymouth North High School Key Club is a service organization for students who wish to undertake projects to benefit fellow students, the school, and the community. This year the Key Club assisted the Weymouth Kiwanis club, its sponsoring organization, in serving Thanksgiving dinner to Weymouth Senior citizens and raised money to provide a Christmas gift for Paul Tubberville. Future plans call for running the blood drive at Weymouth North, collecting clothes for the homeless, and assisting the Duxbury Kiwanis Club with the Plymouth County Special Olympics. Club officers are President Kristin West, Vice President Michelle Ierardi, Secretary Katie Illes, and Treasurer Joe Mahan.

Band

This year the band performed tremendously on the field during halftime and at concerts. The band went to the University of Massachusetts, Amherst to spend a day learning performance techniques and competing against other schools. This day helped the band to improve their marching performance. President Scott Moser and vice-president Michelle Ierardi led the band to a superior season.

(back row) Wayne Cummings, John Baker, Matt Thompson, Laura Vines, Jennifer Stratford, Christine Jennings, Mary Conway, Mike Brodenick, Amy Desrosiers, Michelle Ierardi, Scott Moser, Mike Walsh, Jen Walsh, Angela Ackerman, Debbie Faustini (second row) Tammy Henderson, Tammy Ford, Jennifer Johnson, Mike Gaynor, Dorothy Chase, Dawn Edwards, Mark Galluzo, Benee Vieno, Carol Smith, Beth Berard, Michelle DiBona, Kimberly Merrill, Sarah Stoddard, Jennifer Persutti (front row) Mr. Brayton, Rajni Steeves, Heather Sellers, Carne Burke, Martin McDonagh, Jennifer Pompeo, Jessica Henley, Heather Condon

"Bye Bye Birdie"



Cheerleaders

This year the cheerleaders outdid themselves by showing support for all of the teams with their cheers and dance routines. Every week throughout the fall the team practiced to perfect choreography and rhythm. Captains Teri Moore and Maureen Snell did a superb job of pulling the squad together and lending support to all the athletes. The cheerleaders were a spirited asset to North this year.

Sailing

The Sailing Team was reactivated last year with enthusiasm, thanks to Janese Willy. Janese and Joe Hanrahan led the team to a spectacular year under the leadership of coach Rick Jackus. Mr. Ghiorse, the faculty advisor, pushed the team to compete in as many regattas as possible and get more people interested in joining the team. This year the team's outlook appears to be much brighter with Dorothy Chase leading the sailors in an exciting season.

Outdoor Sports

The Outdoor Sports Club spent a week hiking and Backpacking through the White Mountains of New Hampshire last spring. For five days Mr. Lonergan led a group of nature enthusiasts through the forest and up the mountains. The weather was beautiful and the water was frigid. The trip was very exhausting but very memorable.
